These pension plan provisions contain the specific information applicable to the respective pension plan and supplement the Pension Regulations with regard to the particularities of the plan. In addition, the regulatory provisions are reproduced in excerpted form. However, the Pension Regulations are determinative.

The insured salary corresponds to the employee's qualifying annual salary less the coordination amount.

For part-time employees or partially disabled insured persons the contribution amount and the maximum insured annual salary shall be adjusted in line with the degree of employment or the entitlement to a disability pension.

Financing

Amount of contributions (cf. Regulations Art. 5)

Insured persons may choose between the "Standard" and "Light" contribution scale. The contribution scale must be chosen upon admission to the pension fund. Unless otherwise specified in writing, the "Light" contribution scale shall be used. Transfer to a different contribution scale is possible on 1 January and must be notified to the pension fund in writing by the end of November of the previous year.

The insured person and the company shall each pay the following annual contributions, which shall be calculated as percentages of the insured salary:

In the event of continuing insurance of the previous insured salary pursuant to Art. 3 para. 4, the insured person shall also pay the company's contributions in respect of that part of the insured salary for which continuing insurance is required.

The age of the insured person is the difference between the current calendar year and the year of birth. Transition to the next higher contribution level takes place on 1 January.

Buy-in of additional benefits (cf. Regulations Art. 6 para. 2.)

Additional benefits may be bought in up to the maximum amount specified in the following table, less the existing savings capital at the time of the buy-in. The employee's age must be calculated precisely in years and months. The period between the birthday and the first day of the following month shall not be taken into account. Intermediate values shall be linearly interpolated.

For buy-ins after reaching reference age, the entry in the table for age 65 shall be used.
